Let me start by telling you what really drives me nuts...

Actually it makes me angry as well...

It's those offers promising you EASY money, It's those get rich Quick matrix schemes, It's those cheap programs that suck your hard earned money out of your bank account and in return give you a lot of drivel...

But hang on a second, it's not all their fault either...it's you and even me too, by getting sucked in by these false promises, and all the bullshit fancy pants sales pages.....

...and Yes I have been guilty more than once too, losing hundreds of Dollars in one case that really hurt. Can you Imagine how PISSED off I was?

Since 2006 I have been making a living on the internet, and have had some amazing months of WOW income. I don't have a helicopter or a Jet and I don't want one either.

I earn a great income that allows me to live well and I don't broadcast it all over the place like a peacock.

I don't find any point in that... You don't want to hear how well someone else is doing...YOU want to Achieve for YOU after all...

Making Money Online: The Insanity, The Failures, The Frustration...

I have been approached by hundreds of developers asking me to advertise their programs, training and software to make money online and more often than not they give me either review copies or sneak peeks into their member's areas.

That way I can make sure the offer is quality, WILL deliver what it promises and has the support to go with it.

Believe me I have purchased thousands of products in the last 10 years related to internet marketing, and personally I have a number of income streams that are reliable and passive incomes.

Still with me? Let's move on then.

What Am I Going To Do?

That is the question you are asking me!

You MUST read, absorb, learn, decide... and lastly TAKE ACTION, can you do that?

Its decision time, and also the time to stop hoping free money programs and cheap rubbish are going to make money fall into your lap. Do I sound harsh? YES.

Sometimes you have to shake the tree to make the fruit fall down, or the penny drop!

Get this...I WANT to help you, and you know why?

Simple answer, it also helps me too, and whether you believe this saying to be cheesy or not ...it really is good karma!

You have heard, and you have read lots of rags to riches stories, and all have one thing in common.

THEY took action.

They wanted a better life...they were tired of struggling and hated their jobs and being abused by nasty bosses. Sound familiar?

Making Money Online: The Insanity, The Failures, The Frustration...

For me it was a little different, I HAD NO CHOICE!

I became hearing impaired after a failed ear operation, and it was do or die to make an income online... because who would employ me?

I am not going to give you any further sob story on that because you can read this on the 'about pages' on any one of my many websites!

YOU have a choice, and if you have a job that is great... because you can start something on the side, and build it up slowly but surely until you can quit and walk out the door, watching the shock and amazement on your bosses face, and best of all those on your colleagues faces as well...

When I go to family get together, a common question bandied around is 'what do you do for a living Richard?'

When I tell people I make money online, I always get those skeptical looks, or blank looks, because like you.. perhaps it is always hard to believe...

ESPECIALLY if you have already tried and failed?

So the choice is yours to close this section...

Take Action once you have decided what you want to do to create wealth on the internet. If you want to know the hottest top rated trending programs are, then let me tell you again... SUBSCRIBE HERE

If you don't find something in all those offers, then I believe that you are better off working for someone else till you retire. Hurts doesn't it...

Lastly, it does not matter how much you invest in any business opportunity ...even if it is $5000. Don't be short sighted and worry what you have invested in the business... but rather think long term how you are going to quadruple that investment over, and over again.

Buy Cheap and you are going to get screwed! READ THIS

...and I mean right now too ...you can always carry on reading this guide afterwards...

How to Make Money Online!

All these fancy pictures look great...but they are useless if the money is not in YOUR bank account hey..?

On the way home after a tough day at work, the added stress caused in rush hour traffic, the heat in the car because the day was hot, your fuel tank is almost empty, and you need to fetch the kids at school... makes you a candidate for road rage..

Making Money Online: The Insanity, The Failures, The Frustration...

That is probably when you hate your job the most. But STILL you will do nothing about it...tomorrow you will be back at work again and hating it ...looking forward to the weekends...how LAME.

It's weekend every day for me if I want to do something I want to do....

Let me tell you something you may have read about making money online. It's true as well...

The Potential is absolutely massive and GROWING exponentially.

Who are taking advantage of this...ACTION TAKERS!

You CAN actually make money on the internet

All the wealthy people say the same thing over and over again...and my favorite is the one saying that comes from Richard Branson.

Grab the opportunity as soon as you come across it with both hands....Once you have it, then it's yours, and you can decide what you are going to do with it... whenever you are ready!

There are many LIMITED special offers in business opportunities, and they DO expire, and memberships DO close, because even I have been too slow a few times, and a few superb opportunities have slipped through my fingers....

Many new make money online business opportunities are being launched by wealthy entrepreneurs almost every day... and they close their doors once they have enough people in their memberships, they will focus on training. You can only help so many people at a time...

I have been politely told to shove it by some of these guys...IE in real terms...'to go to hell and enjoy the ride'. I still appreciated their honesty though...

I am dying to mention some big names here that I approached... but they will crucify me. ☺

Fact is just as I mentioned, and that is that you can only help so many people at a time, and just like me I get to levels where I remove products, because helping people that purchased them from me to get them set up and running for them...can take me quite a big slice of my day.

I will probably drown myself by letting you know one I launched for my subscribers recently which I am almost ready to take down for a while because running set up support is quite work intensive:

Go and take a look if you like at that one if it is live again at the moment: CLICK HERE

So making money online possible...YES! YES! YES! YES....!

No-one must ever tell me they cannot succeed, or that there isn't a method that will work for them, or they have tried EVBEYTHING, and nothing works...

I will then answer the same way...And that is to stay in your job until you retire because there is no hope for you.

Tired of Failing to Earn Money Online?

To close off this chapter let me tell you why most people are failing all the time.

Here are some common reasons for these failures you can read here... but the BIGGEST one of all is trying to take on too much at one time.

Personally I have about 10....yes 10 different income streams, but I set each one up properly and thoroughly first , kept an eye on it for a while, and only once it was ticking along nicely on its own, did I begin thinking about the next one.

You will get inundated with offers to make money online from all over...in your spam box, in newspapers and the media, while surfing the internet, and in many applications too. These softly, cleverly draw you in... until you suffer from information overload and too much to do, and you end up doing nothing!

Making Money Online: The Insanity, The Failures, The Frustration...

If you join my newsletters and find something perfect for you, then stop right there, and start doing the business you found by taking massive action.

You can read all the future emails from anyone that concern making money online... and even save them for later...but what you chose to do now becomes your priority, and you MUST kill temptation when you see ANY further offers that look as good as the sun and the moon and the stars.

Choosing Your Income Streams

I did tell you that I was going to share the different ways I earn money online, and I am going to do that below. You may think it's a lot to handle for anyone person, and you might even think one would have to work themselves into a coma to cope with them all.

No and No... because many methods to make money on the internet can be set up to work completely automatically, passive incomes they call them. Then once you are raking in a good income from a system, then you can outsource stuff to freelancers to do it for you and that is very satisfying...oh yeah!

Something Else You Should Know...

Unfortunately my wife got cancer in 2014 and the day they were wheeling her in for a operation, the very same day my sister died...also from cancer... so you can imagine all the time it took me taking care of her up and down for treatments, doctors operations and the like.

I am not complaining at all because I love my wife... but would like to make the point that I was quite smug, knowing that my income streams were quietly performing while I was caring for my wife.

In some cases working for a boss you might have had to take unpaid leave right...Something I remember I had to do WAAAY back when I worked for a real Dick of a boss, and a shitty job in FMCG factory to match...always being on callouts, and the noise is what actually caused me to go deaf too..

Anyway without further rambling let me list the income streams I have running...In no particular order...

1. Blogging.
2. Affiliate Marketing.
3. Publishing Books. (Kindle Eezywealth Subscribers Get My Publishing Guide Free).
4. Email Marketing (Awesome!)
5. Article Marketing and Some Freelance Writing (For special clients and friends) only.
6. CPA Networks (Take a Look at an example here)
7. Joint Ventures

8. Product Creation (Get The FREE Guide if you Like here)

9. Trading Binary Options occasionally (Learn More)

10. Bitcoin Both Mining and Spillover (Learn More)

I also dabble in a few other things when I have free time, like Bingads marketing, but a lot of time is spent doing product research and reviews for the programs people send me.

I dump about 65 % of the stuff by the way, because some stuff is really crappy. Then I also get paid for advertising some programs on my websites and blogs.

So you see that is what I do, and I share all the help I can get in my newsletter, which you will be getting with a lot of extra stuff on the way. If you want top picks of trending business opportunities as well then go and join the other fast moving newsletter: SUBSCRIBE HERE

How to Get Started.

It's not hard to get started on your own journey to making money online, BUT you need to know what you want to do, and that means knowing the different ways there are of making money on the internet to start off with....

The list above is in no way exhaustive either, because there are online jobs, freelancing services, or what about starting a home based business....I mean a conventional one?

Making Money Online: The Insanity, The Failures, The Frustration...

You will find drop-shipping programs, application programs, \(Check this One I have just started with a partner\) website flipping, tutoring... and the list goes on and on and on....

That's not all, new ways are coming out regularly as more and more people turn to the internet for its convenience of shopping, information access, recreation, and communication.

You should be feeling a bit better now, because you have realized I am just like you, an average guy with no special skills...

I couldn't even type when I first put on the computer... Now if I can achieve all this, imagine what you CAN do? It's so much easier nowadays!

I am always happy to help and support my subscribers, and people that purchase my products, because after all they were supporting me in buying them in the first place.

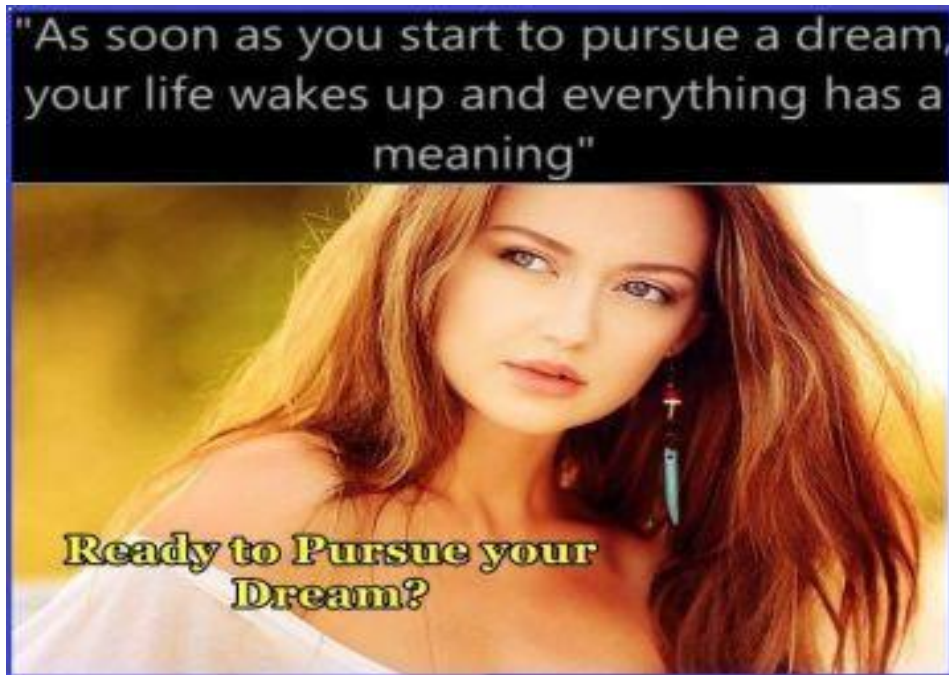

Just recently I gave a guy advice that asked me what the best way was to start a hen party business to provide men dancers to girls getting married... You know like a stag party thing for guys? He is on his way...good niche that!

If you have read this far, then GOOD for you my friend, you are starting to realize that sitting on the fence will get you a measly retirement, and nothing more. TAKE ACTION!

Life is short, and even I got a wakeup call after cancer killed my sister, and also watching my wife suffer cancer, which was heartbreaking, stressful and terrible...

We only have so much time on this earth... and don't you want to enjoy that, or will another year have passed before you know it, and you will think to yourself.... this year I am going to....and it never happens?

Make the Change to Positive

I want to give you some advice to start your journey...some of which you may have read before or seen on my websites, and blogs... READ IT Again:

- Starting a real internet business does take an investment, just as it would a conventional one, and you should bear in mind that top quality programs will cost you money to join, and manage.
- What you should not forget when investing in a sound online business is the money you may earn back, and naturally these earnings from your business should cover the initial investment cost, and the where applicable the subscription of being a member of the opportunity.

Making Money Online: The Insanity, The Failures, The Frustration...

- No matter what any business opportunity program tells you, it is important to know that building an online business does take effort and dedication to set up and get it going.
- Before you invest in any program make sure it is what you want to do, and be prepared to follow through all the way according to the training provided.
- If you enjoy what you are doing you are more likely to make a success.

Take action and as soon as you have invested in the method you want to make money online...GET STARTED AND DON'T LOOK BACK!
